Israeli Global Disaster Relief

“When foreign disasters occur, Israel is among the first in the international community to send rescue teams and emergency assistance to devastated areas.”

Due to its expertise in the fields of emergency and disaster medicine, Israel's Center for International Cooperation, MASHAV, has sent numerous teams of experts to foreign countries to train and often drill with local doctors, nurses, medical technicians, administrators and civil services in dealing with mass casualty emergency events. MASHAV has trained almost 200,000 course participants from approximately 140 countries.
